Order: Respondent voluntarily surrendered his license to practice as a physician/surgeon.

Date: March 4, 2004

DENTISTS

GARDNER, Rod T.
Tremonton, Utah

Cause of

Action: Respondent has a history of drug abuse, criminal charges and incarceration. Respondent had surrendered his license to practice as a dentist in August 2003.

Memorandum of Understanding :

A license to practice as a dentist was issued to Respondent and placed on probation for five years with conditions. No controlled substance license will be issued to Respondent during the probationary period.

Date: March 25, 2004

DENTISTS - continued

ISRAELSEN, John A.
Logan, Utah

Cause of

Action:

In 2002 Respondent prescribed and administered anabolic steroids to his wife for a condition Respondent is not licensed to treat or prescribe controlled substances for. In December 2003 Respondent pled guilty to and was convicted of one count of sexual battery and one count of attempting to supply a controlled substance, both Class A misdemeanors. Prior to November 2002 Respondent administered nitrous oxide to himself in his office. In November 2002 the nitrous oxide was voluntarily removed from his office and he has not had access to nitrous oxide since that time.

Order:

Respondent's license to prescribe and administer controlled substances is revoked for not less than five years from the date of the Order. Respondent may not reapply for a controlled substance license before that time. Respondent's license to practice as a dentist was revoked with a stay of enforcement on the revocation. Said license was placed on probation for five years with conditions and restrictions. Respondent's Class II anesthesia permit was changed to a Class I permit.

Date:

March 19, 2004

JESSEN, Frank Zane
Ogden, Utah

Amended

Order:

Schedule II controlled substances was added to Respondent's license to prescribe and administer controlled substances. Said license will remain on probation for the same duration that currently exists on his license to practice as a dentist.

Date:

February 2, 2004

MCCOMBS, Kathleen
Murray, Utah

Cause of

Action:

Respondent's continued practice represents an immediate and significant danger to the public health, safety or welfare due to her alleged abuse of nitrous oxide.

Emergency

Order:

Respondent's licenses to practice as a dentist and to prescribe and administer controlled substances were immediately suspended pending a further order by the Division.

Date:

January 2, 2004

Amended

Emergency

Order:

Respondent's license to prescribe and administer controlled substances will remain suspended pending a further order by the Division. The suspension on Respondent's license to practice as a dentist was lifted upon her compliance with a submitted practice plan which provided for restrictions on Respondent's practice.

Date:

January 12, 2004

Cause of

Action:

Respondent has a history of abusing nitrous oxide. Respondent has failed to maintain records and inventories of controlled substances as required by the Division and the Drug Enforcement Administration.
